Absent: None

Mayor William Isley called the meeting to order and gave the invocation. David Jones led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Amendments to Agenda

Larry Jones made a motion to amend the agenda to allow discussion with James Grigsby regarding the sewer impact fee. David Jones seconded the motion. All voted aye.

Minutes of February 18, 2013 Regular Meeting

Herbert Toles made a motion to approve the minutes of the February 18, 2013 regular council meeting. Katrina Hennings seconded the motion. All voted aye.

Resolution 2013-13 Declare Surplus Vehicles

David Jones made a motion to adopt Resolution 2013-13 to declare certain vehicles as surplus property and provide for their disposal. Wayne Tucker seconded the motion. All voted aye.

John Coyne – Take a Kid Fishing Day

John Coyne said that he would organize Take a Kid Fishing Day with the assistance of council members and volunteers and asked for police officers or others to help prevent adults from fishing during the event. Mayor William Isley said that the city would provide any assistance needed.

Herbert Toles – Clean Up Day

Herbert Toles said that Clean Up Day will be held on April 27 from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. and encouraged everyone to attend and help clean up their neighborhoods.

Mayor's Report

Mayor William Isley said that he had received a request for a wedding to be held on the bridge at Big Springs Park and asked for council input into whether to allow this. The council expressed no objection to weddings in the park when the splashpad is not open.

Mayor William Isley discussed landscaping at the new walking track, benches to be installed on Main Street, the progress on the police building and Walker Drive projects, the widening of Highway 174, progress on the driving school and school security, and the intention of the Board of Education to construct a new middle school in Springville.

James Grigsby-Sewer Impact Fees

James Grigsby addressed the council regarding the sewer impact fees to be assessed on his restaurant, The Shack, which is moving to a new location. Mr. Grigsby said that he thought that the fees were excessive and that the ordinance allowed other options for other types of establishments.

Public Works Superintendent Earl Peoples addressed the council regarding the necessity of sewer impact fees for operation of the sewer system and the history of the fees.

Matthew Cherry addressed the council regarding military discounts at The Shack and other restaurants.

After lengthy discussion, the council asked James Hill to meet with Earl Peoples and review the ordinance and advise as to options available to Mr. Grigsby with regard to Impact Fees and the opening of The Shack.

With no further business to come before the council, Herbert Toles made a motion to adjourn. Wayne Tucker seconded the motion. All voted aye.
